A. INTRODUCTION

1. This document embodies the Conflict of Interest Management Policy for Prowess Investment Managers.
2. “Conflict of interest” means any situation in which Prowess Investment Managers or its representatives has an actual or potential interest that may, in rendering a financial service to a client influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client; or prevent Prowess Investment Managers or its representatives from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client, including, but not limited to
 - i. a financial interest;
 - ii. an ownership interest;
 - iii. any relationship with a third party (“third party” means
 - a. a product supplier,
 - b. another provider,
 - c. an associate of a product supplier or a provider;
 - d. a distribution channel;
 - e. any person who in terms of an agreement or arrangement with a person referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) above provides a financial interest to a provider or its representatives.)
3. The primary objectives of this Policy are:
 - i. To provide guidance on the behaviours expected in accordance with Prowess Investment Managers standards;
 - ii. To promote transparency and to avoid business-related COI;
 - iii. To ensure fairness in the interests of employees and Prowess Investment Managers;
 - iv. To document the process for the disclosure, approval and review of activities that may amount to actual, potential or perceived COI;
 - v. To provide a mechanism for the objective review of personal outside interests.
4. Prowess Investment Managers is committed to ensuring that all business is conducted in accordance with good business practice. To this end Prowess Investment Managers conducts business in an ethical and equitable manner and in a way that safeguards the interests of all stakeholders to minimize and manage all real or potential conflict of interest (COI). Prowess Investment Managers and its representative must therefore avoid (or mitigate where avoidance is not possible) any COI between Prowess Investment Managers and a client or its representative and a client.

B. FINANCIAL INTEREST

1. Prowess Investment Managers or its representatives may only receive or offer financial interest from or to a third party as determined by the Registrar of Financial Services Providers from time to time, and as set out in Annexure A hereto.
2. "Financial interest" means any cash, cash equivalent, voucher, gift, service, advantage, benefit, discount, domestic and foreign travel, hospitality, accommodation, sponsorship, other incentive or valuable consideration, other than –
 - i. an ownership interest
 - ii. training, that is not exclusively available to a selected group of providers or representatives on products and legal matters relating to those products; general financial and industry information; specialized technological systems of a third party necessary for the rendering of a financial service; but excluding travel and accommodation associated with that training.
3. Prowess Investment Managers may not offer any financial interest to its representatives for giving preference to the quantity of business secured for the provider to the exclusion of the quality of the service rendered to clients; OR giving preference to a specific product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; OR giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to a client.

C. MECHANISMS FOR IDENTIFYING COI

1. Prowess Conducts quarterly reviews on all contracts held with 3rd parties and re-examines whether this relationship influences the
